Outlook

	Environment	Assumptions	EBIT
Upper Scenario	Significant improvement in the market environment	 Hesitancy towards capital market-related provision products largely disappears Health insurance develops very positively throughout the market New areas of potential through real estate brokerage Disappearance of the negative unisex effect from 2013 	~ € 75 m
Base Scenario	Initial improvement in the framework conditions	 Opportunities for products with minor capital market component (long-term care pension, occupational disability, occupational provision) Slight improvement for capital market-related provision products – especially through new guarantee concepts Reduction of uncertainties in health insurance New areas of potential through real estate brokerage Disappearance of the negative unisex effect from 2013 	~ € 65 m
Lower Scenario	Continued hesitancy on the part of clients	 Critical public debate, such as a reduction of the guaranteed interest rate for life insurance and pension insurance policies, leads to similar hesitancy as witnessed in 2013 Reduction of uncertainties in health insurance New areas of potential through real estate brokerage Disappearance of the negative unisex effect from 2013 	~ € 50 m

Administration costs 2014: ~ € 255 million

Summary

- MLP continues to benefit from the new breadth of the business model
- Framework conditions remain challenging particularly in health insurance and old-age provision
- First signs of pick-up in old-age provision as well as revenue growth in wealth management and in non-life insurance
- Good start with the extended real estate product offering introduced in March
- As is usual in the MLP business model, it is particularly the second half-year that plays a crucial role in the full-year results
- Outlook for 2014 reiterated
